

Essentials of Auditing, Assurance Services and Ethics in Australia: An integrated approach

Alvin A. Arens Michigan State University

Peter Best University of Southern Queensland

Greg Shailer The Australian National University

Brenton Fiedler University of South Australia

ISBN 9781442508224

Published 26/08/2009

Published by Pearson Australia

Pages 600

Alvin A. Arens (BBA, MS, PhD) is the Pricewaterhouse Coopers Auditing Professor at the Eli Broad College of Business, Michigan State University. He has received many awards for teaching excellence, and his groundbreaking book Auditing and Assurance Services: An Integrated Approach is currently in its 11th edition.

Peter Best (BCom, MEngSci, PhD, FCPA) is Professor and Head of the School of Accounting, Economics and Finance at the University of Southern Queensland. He has taught accounting at the University of Queensland, University of Newcastle, University of Adelaide, Flinders University, Queensland University of Technology and USQ. Peter is a Fellow of CPA Australia and an Associate of the ICAA. He has acted as consultant to a variety of accounting firms and government departments both here and overseas. His specialist teaching areas include accounting information systems, auditing, information systems auditing, SAP enterprise systems and business forensics. Peter is co-author of Auditing Computer Based Systems, many editions of both Horngren's Accounting and Financial Accounting and the previous editions of Auditing and Assurance Services in Australia: An Integrated Approach.

Greg Shailer (BCom, MCom, PhD, FCPA) is a Reader in the School of Accounting and Business Information Systems at The Australian National University, where he co-ordinates the Corporations, Governance & Society Research Group. He has taught in prominent Australian, UK and US universities. His specialist teaching areas are corporate governance and auditing. Greg's research focuses on corporate governance, auditing, and regulation. He is a member of the ARC Governance Research Network and the European Corporate Governance Institute. He is a Fellow of CPA Australia and has prior experience with both small and large public accounting firms, and as a consultant to private sector firms and government agencies. Greg is author of An Introduction to Corporate Governance in Australia and co-author of the previous editions of Auditing and Assurance Services in Australia: An Integrated Approach.

Brenton Fiedler (BA Acc, MBus, FCA) is an Associate Professor in the School of Commerce at the University of South Australia. Brenton is a fellow of the ICAA, and is a former senior manager in the Adelaide audit division of KPMG. His specialist teaching areas include auditing, financial accounting, and corporate strategy, and he has taught both locally and overseas. Brenton is also the author of the Student Guide to Auditing and Assurance Services in Australia: An Integrated Approach.

PART I: The Auditing Profession

1. Demand for audit and assurance services
2. Audit reports
3. Audit regulation and quality

PART II: The Audit Process

4. Audit responsibilities and objectives
5. Audit evidence
6. Audit planning and documentation
7. Materiality and risk
8. Internal control and control risk
9. Fraud auditing
10. The impact of information technology on the audit process
11. Overall audit plan and audit program
12. Audit and tests of controls in the sales and collection cycle
13. Audit sampling

PART III: Application of the Audit Process to the Sales and Collection Cycles

14. Audit of transaction cycles and financial balance statements
15. Completing the audit

PART IV: Other Assurance and Nonassurance services

16. Other assurance engagements and environments